

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

United States of America

v.

Jamel Thomas,

Defendant.

Deferred Prosecution Agreement

21 Cr. 249 (RA)

To: Jamel Thomas,

On October 28, 2021, a grand jury sitting in the Southern District of New York returned an indictment, charging you with committing an offense against the United States, to wit, (i) conspiracy to commit firearms offenses, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 371, 922(a)(1)(A), and 922(a)(3), and (ii) gun trafficking, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 922(a)(1)(A), 924(a)(1), and 2. However, after a thorough investigation, and your successful completion of the Young Adult Opportunity Program, it has been determined that the interest of the United States and your own interest will best be served by deferring prosecution in this District. Prosecution will be deferred during the term of your good behavior, satisfactory compliance with the terms of this agreement and satisfaction of the restitution obligations described below, for a period of no more than twelve months. The terms and conditions constituting your good behavior and satisfactory compliance are as follows:

- (1) You shall refrain from violation of any law (federal, state and local). You shall immediately contact your U.S. Pretrial Services Officer if arrested or questioned by a law-enforcement officer.
- (2) You shall associate only with law-abiding persons.
- (3) You shall work regularly at a lawful occupation and/or regularly attend school and support your legal dependents, if any, to the best of your ability. When out of work or not attending school you shall notify your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer at once. You shall consult him or her prior to job and school changes. If a medical condition renders you unable to work you must notify your Pretrial Services Officer at once.
- (4) You shall engage in mental health treatment as directed by Pretrial Services.
- (5) You shall not leave the Southern or Eastern Districts of New York without permission of your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer.
- (6) You shall notify your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer immediately of any change in your place of residence.
- (7) You shall follow your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer's instructions and advice.

(8) You shall report to your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer as directed.

As a further condition you hereby consent to disclosure, by any federal, state or local government agency, or by any medical or substance abuse treatment provider, to the U.S. Pretrial Services Officer supervising your case, of such medical and treatment records as may be requested by the Pretrial Services Officer to evaluate deferral of prosecution in this case. You further agree that you will execute any additional consent forms that any such agency or provider may require to release such information.

Special conditions are as follows:

1. The United States Attorney may at any time revoke or modify any condition of this provisional release or change the period of such supervision. The United States Attorney may discharge you from supervision at any time. The United States Attorney may at any time proceed with the prosecution for this offense should the United States Attorney, in his or her sole discretion, deem such action advisable.

If upon completion of your supervision a written report from your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer is received to the effect that you have complied with all the rules, regulations and conditions and special conditions applicable to your deferred prosecution, no further prosecution will be instituted in this District for the above offense.
